The Monks Hymn
was among the Loose papers Purchased at the Late Mr Woodbridge Sale the whole of which was left him by Dr Bard — The writing from the Music by Mr Tallis — & the Doctor writing — N.L. 1799 — Thompson Heard it in this Book —

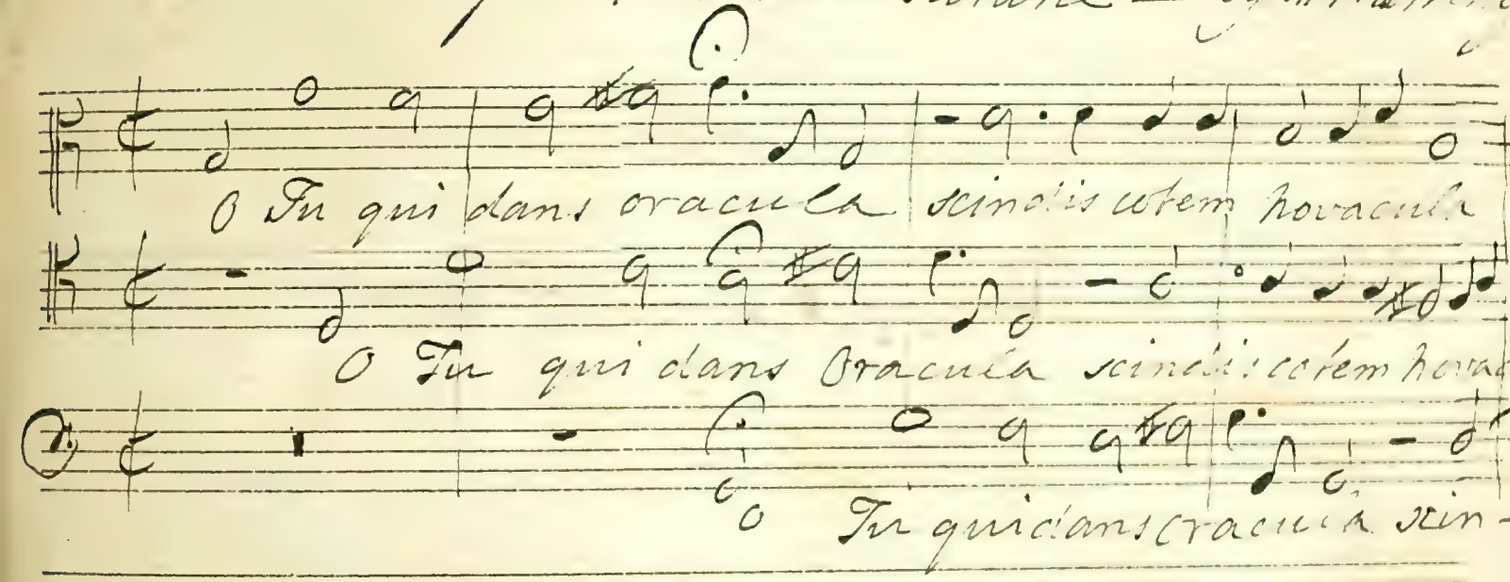
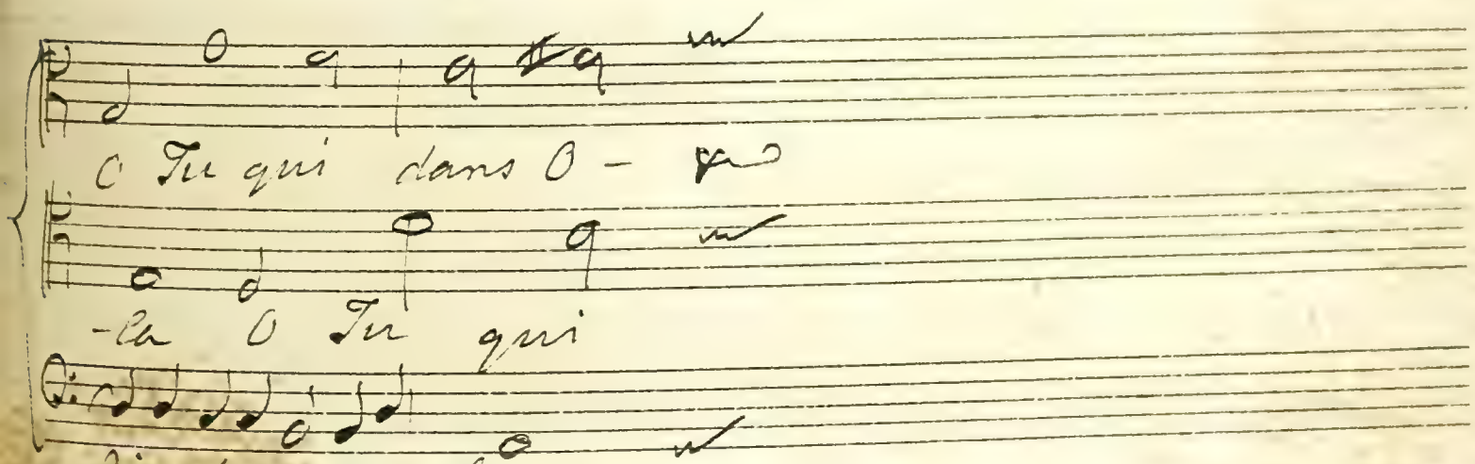
The Monks Hymn to Sainte Satane — by Dr Harrington





Music by Phil. Tallis in tribute to the Father of Dr Peter Harrington

The above Canon is in Subdiatesparon & Subdiapason — The Music seems to be worthy of Tallis Himself — The above mentioned Scholar of Tallis is not a Professor of Music, but a Gentleman of Family and Fortune he married Esther the natural Daughter of Henry the 8th with the Kings Consent, and with whom he gave a convenable Fortune

The Words to the foregoing Music — Chanted daily in the Cathedral ordered King Henry spoild their singing 1540

C En qui dare oracula, scindit eorum voracula, Da nobis ut tabernacula linqua carnis vernacula, Optima post jentacula, hujus modi miracula.

Sit semper plenum gaudium, habentes plenum credulum, Fiducia non ut speculo, per longa et lata jaculo, Videmus et plectrata, nec nocte nec de cuba Cunctis de nobis reddita, sed intrinsecus speculo.
Spes vitemus spinula, lacertos cum aniculo.
Sic opacat ut cornicula, sic mihi dat oraculo,
Cum tripudium ciconia, tum collegarum plenitudo, Sine nubi ad vernaculam, et solum ad Calculum,
Cum cui sit spiraculum, speciem hic speculorum

The Antiphon was copied from another in the Landowning of Winchester Cathedral in the Custody of Dr Harwood but since lost or else mislaid.
